

Sticker Creation Guide

Asian Pacific Islander Desi American (APIDA) history in the United States is an integral part of American history. Since the first Asian immigrants arrived in the United States, till the present day, they have advocated for their rights and in cross-racial solidarity with others, including labor activism to fighting for school integration and immigrant/citizenship rights in the courts.

Design Prompt:

Create a sticker that exemplifies “Respect Our Rights.”

Design Tips & Best Practices:

- Keep it simple! Adding a lot of details might hide your main idea and make it harder for your sticker to stand out. Every detail matters.
- Make it eye-catching! Use bold, bright colors that complement each other.
- Use easy-to-read text! If you’re using text in your sticker, make it large enough to read easily. You can use different font sizes and styles (bold, underlined) and different letter arrangements (based on spacing, direction of text, etc.) to make your sticker fun and read-able.
- Don’t use too much text! Having a lot of text will make your sticker hard to read. A few words is plenty to get a message across.

Sample Messages or Slogans:

- Respect Our Rights
- Know History, Know Yourself
- Stand Up
- Generation Rising
- Rise Up!!
- Ethnic Studies Now!!
- Affirmative Action Now!!
- Asian Americans for Affirmative Action
- Asian Americans for Black Lives
- Black Lives Matter
- We Are One
- Let Us Be Heard
- My Voice, Our Future
- Make a Leap to Policy Change
