

Women Advancing Equality
Analyzing Causes and Effects Examples

	CAUSES	ACTIONS	EFFECTS What are effects of the actions?
Patsy Takemoto Mink co-authored Title IX, and helped passed the Women's Educational Equity Act,	Throughout her life, Patsy Mink was discriminated because she was a woman. She was rejected by medical schools despite her academic accomplishment.	She co-authored Title IX. It was passed. She helped passed the Women's Educational Equity Act,	Title IX ensures that no one will be discriminated against in education and federally-funded activities based on gender. Women's Educational Equity Act provided funding to prevent discrimination in education programs.
Asian Americans become the fastest growing population.	Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and African Americans led the Civil Rights Movement. The Civil Rights Act of 1964 was passed.	Discriminatory laws and policies were re-examined and revised.	The old immigration laws and policies were replaced by a new immigration law, The Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965. The new law is based on a system of preference and family reunification, helping many Asians and Africans to reunite with their families in America.
Other cause and effect examples

